Suppliers of the Hungarian Army Commissary (5pp; French; 17/7/52)

This 5-page photostatic document reports a recent meeting at the Ministry of Defense. The meeting established a joint Hungarian-Soviet commission to supervise the Hungarian food industry. It also drew up a list, stating the percentage of output that the food industry must turn over to this commission, i.e., to the military authorities.

This document contains a list of the enterprises concerned, together with the percentage of their output which they are required to turn over to the commission.

In the case of the dairy industries, 12 out of 32 enterprises must contribute over 70 percent of their output, and only 8 of the 32 may give less than 50 percent.

Fifteen out of 24 meat and pork enterprises must turn in over 70 percent of their output.

All but one out of eight producers cooperatives must turn in 50 percent or more of the total lard output.

The commission claims 70 percent of rice, beans, and other legumes.

Four out of six major vegetable oil refineries must turn in 70-75 percent of their output.

Seven out of 10 sugar refineries must contribute 50 percent or more of their sugar.
